

Conduct Complaint filed with the Office of the Dean of Students

Investigatory meeting scheduled between student and Chief Conduct Officer. Student notified by certified mail (at the address listed in BanWeb).

Not enough evidence that a violation occurred.

Complaint dismissed.
No further action taken.

Enough evidence that a violation occurred to warrant further investigation.

Student elects to have Chief Conduct Officer hear the conduct case.

Student found Not Responsible.

No further action taken.

Student found Responsible. Sanctions imposed.

Sanctions completed.

Student elects to have the Conduct Committee hear the conduct case.

Student found Not Responsible

No further action taken.

Student appeals decision to Dean of Students.

Appeal requirements met.
Appeal heard.

Appeal denied.

Case re-heard by Chief Conduct Officer or Conduct Committee.

Appeal requirements not met.
Appeal denied.

Appeal accepted.

Sanctions modified.

For more information, please contact the PSU
Office of the Dean of Students

503.725.4422
conduct@pdx.edu