New “I to F” Grading Policy for Undergraduate Courses
Effective Fall Term 2006

The new “I to F” grading policy, effective Fall Term 2006, affects undergraduate courses only. It is important for students to fully understand how the policy will affect their GPA, and to request an Incomplete grade with full knowledge of the repercussions.

The policy has changed in two important ways:

A. "Failure to make up an Incomplete in an undergraduate course by the end of one calendar year will result in the mark of I automatically changing to a grade of F or NP, depending on the grading option chosen by the student at registration. The instructor, department chair, or dean may set earlier deadlines.”

B. “For graduating students, Incompletes in undergraduate courses awarded Fall Term 2006 or later will be automatically changed to a grade of F or NP prior to conferral of the degree. The faculty of record must file supplemental grade changes no later than thirty days after the degree is awarded. Grades of F or NP will remain on the academic record after the degree is awarded, and cannot be removed.”

The Faculty Senate approved these changes to the Incomplete policy on June 5, 2006, as proposed by the Scholastic Standards Committee. The complete policy statement is provided below. The criteria for assigning an Incomplete grade remain the same.

Incomplete Policy, as stated in the 2006-7 Bulletin/Catalog

Incompletes. A student may be assigned a mark of I by an instructor when all of the following four criteria apply:

1. Quality of work in the course up to that point is C- level or above.
2. Essential work remains to be done. “Essential” means that a grade for the course could not be assigned without dropping one or more grade points below the level achievable upon completion of the work.
3. Reasons for assigning an I must be acceptable to the instructor. The student does not have the right to demand an I. The circumstances must be unforeseen or be beyond the control of the student. An instructor is entitled to insist on appropriate medical or other documentation.
4. Consultation must have occurred and a formal agreement must be reached between instructor and student.

Nov. 6, 2006
A written record of the remaining work and its completion date should be kept by both instructor and student. The instructor may specify the highest grade that may be earned. This should not exceed the level of achievement displayed during the normal course period.

The deadline for completion of an Incomplete can be no longer than one year. The instructor may set a shorter deadline which shall be binding. An agreement to a longer period must be by petition to the Scholastic Standards Committee.

Failure to make up the Incomplete in an undergraduate course by the end of one calendar year will result in the mark of I automatically changing to a grade of F or NP, depending on the grading option chosen by the student at registration. The instructor, department chair, or dean may set earlier deadlines.

In cases when a student’s inability to complete the work by the deadline is due to extraordinary circumstances such as catastrophic injury or illness, petition may be made to the Scholastic Standards Committee, which will review the case to determine appropriate action.
GUIDELINES AND CRITERIA FOR ASSIGNING AN INCOMPLETE

A student may be assigned an "I" grade by an instructor when all of the following four criteria apply:

1. Quality of work in the course up to that point is “C-” level or above.
2. Essential work remains to be done. “Essential” means that a grade for the course could not be assigned without dropping one or more grade points below the level achievable upon completion of the work.
3. Reasons for assigning an “I” must be acceptable to the instructor. The student does not have the right to demand an “I”. The circumstances must be unforeseen, or be beyond the control of the student. An instructor is entitled to insist on appropriate medical or other documentation.
4. Consultation must have occurred, and a formal agreement must be reached between instructor and student.

The deadline for completion of an Incomplete can be no longer than one year. The instructor may set a shorter deadline, which shall be binding. An agreement to a longer period must be by petition to the Scholastic Standards Committee.

Failure to make up the Incomplete in an undergraduate course by the end of one calendar year will result in the mark of “I” automatically changing to a grade of “F” or “NP”, depending on the grading option chosen by the student at registration. The instructor, department chair, or dean may set earlier deadlines.

For graduating students, Incompletes in undergraduate courses awarded Fall Term 2006 or later will be automatically changed to a grade of “F” or “NP” prior to conferral of the degree. The faculty of record must file supplemental grade changes no later than thirty days after the degree is awarded. Grades of “F” or “NP” will remain on the academic record after the degree is awarded and cannot be removed.

CONTRACT BETWEEN STUDENT AND INSTRUCTOR FOR GIVING AN INCOMPLETE

Due to student unforeseen circumstances, which are acceptable to the instructor, ____________________ will complete the following assignment(s)/exam by the stated deadline for the following course:

__________________________________________________ CRN:______________ Term____________ Year________
