

PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICE

Service – Resource – Partnership – Respect - Commitment

Campus Alert

On the evening of October 10, 2007 around 5:25pm a Parking Enforcement Officer with the Portland State University Transportation and Parking Services Office was attacked by an unknown assailant in a stairwell of Parking Structure III. The Parking Enforcement Officer was inquiring if he could be of assistance to the suspect, who was crying and appeared upset. As the Parking Enforcement Officer turned away, the suspect stabbed the officer in the arm, with an unknown object. The Parking Enforcement Officer sustained a small puncture wound to the arm. As the suspect fled the area, the Parking Enforcement Officer went to seek assistance. Campus Public Safety Officers arrived in the area and were unable to locate the suspect. The Parking Enforcement Officer was taken to OHSU for treatment of his injury.

The suspect is described as:

- White Male
- 6' 140-150 pounds
- Shoulder length greasy brown hair
- Wearing oversized brown jacket, tattered blue jeans, worn tennis shoes
- Carrying bright blue duffle bag

The Portland State University Campus Public Safety Office (CPSO) is asking for any information or if believe you have seen the suspect please call CPSO's emergency number at (503)725-4404.

REPORT SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY TO THE CPSO EMERGENCY LINE
503-725-4404