

International Student and Scholar Services and the Multicultural Center at Portland State University invite you to the Portland premiere of the film:

CYPRUS: DIGGING THE PAST IN SEARCH OF THE FUTURE

See the trailer at <http://theelders.org/cyprus/blogs/elders/cyprus-digging-past-search-future>

*Friday
April 8, 2011*

4-6 pm

*Multicultural Center at Portland State University
SMSU 228*

This 37 minute film follows three Elders, Archbishop Desmond Tutu, Jimmy Carter and Lakhdar Brahimi and four youth from Greek Cypriot and Turkish Cypriot communities as they learn about all of the people who disappeared during the inter-communal violence in the 1960s and 1970s.

Co-Sponsors include:

Office of International Affairs, PSU
Conflict Resolution Graduate Program, PSU
Center for Turkish Studies, PSU
Mark O. Hatfield School of Government, PSU
Student Center for Dispute Resolution, PSU
City of Portland

For more information: www.oia.pdx.edu

Introduction and Q & A session by:

Dr. Birol Yeşilada, Professor of Political Science and International Studies, and Endowed Chair of Contemporary Turkish Studies

Dr. Harry Anastasiou, Professor of Conflict
Resolution and International Studies

 Portland State
UNIVERSITY