

Three Portraits of Turkey

A Cultural Immersion Experience for the Community

In celebration of the 86th Anniversary of the Republic of Turkey & the NEW PSU Center for Turkish Studies

Sponsored by The Turkish Cultural Foundation, In cooperation with World Affairs Councils of America, World Affairs Council of Oregon & The PSU Center for Turkish Studies

October 30, 6:00–9:00 PM — The Delight of Turkish Cooking, Culture and Community

PSU Native American Center, 710 Jackson St. @ Broadway, Portland, OR

$15 for WAC Members, PSU Students & Faculty, $20 for Non-Members. $5 for youth 12 & under.

Enjoy a traditional Turkish meal, a Turkish Folktale enactment, Folk Dance & Music, a display & sales of Turkish art & artifacts. Hear from recent visitors to Turkey and meet members of the local Turkish community & PSU Turkish faculty and students. Register online at www.worldoregon.org.

November 4, 7:00–9:00 PM — A Vision of Turkey through Film and Discussion

PSU Smith Memorial Union, 1825 SW Broadway @ Harrison, Room 296/98, Portland, OR

$5 for World Affairs Council Members, PSU Students/Faculty, $10 for General Public

Enjoy coffee, tea and Turkish desserts while viewing the 2005 documentary, Crossing the Bridge — Sounds of Istanbul a journey through the music scene and cultural life in modern Istanbul, Turkey. This wonderful film is an inspired portrait of Turkish music — from arabesque to indie rock and rap. This will be topped off with a discussion led by Dr. Pelin Basci, PSU Professor of Turkish Language and Culture. Register online at www.worldoregon.org.

November 8, 11:00 AM–5:00 PM — The Arts and Crafts of Turkey | Free Event

Ottoman Klasik, Turkish Coffee and Fine Imports, 5015 NE Fremont @ 50th, Portland, OR

Join us for an open house and enjoy presentations on Turkish artistry, decorating advice from a Street of Dreams consultant, demonstrations on Turkish coffee making, a mini tutorial on signs and symbols in Turkish carpets, merchandise prize drawings and a 35% discount throughout the day, all the while sampling Turkish coffee, meze and baklava treats!

More information available at www.ottomanklasik.com or (503) 282-2848.

WORLD
AFFAIRS
COUNCIL
of Oregon

620 SW Main St., Ste. 333, Portland, OR 97205

tel: 503.274.7488 | fax: 503.274.7489

e-mail: community@worldoregon.org

web: www.worldoregon.org

Three Portraits of Turkey

A Cultural Immersion Experience for the Community

Part 1 — The Delight of Turkish Cooking, Culture and Community

Sponsored by The Turkish Cultural Foundation, In cooperation with World Affairs Councils of America, World Affairs Council of Oregon & The PSU Center for Turkish Studies

In celebration of the 86th Anniversary of the Republic of Turkey & the NEW PSU Center for Turkish Studies

Friday, October 30, 6:00–9:00 PM

PSU Native American Center, 710 Jackson St. @ Broadway, Portland, OR

$15 for WAC Members, PSU Students & Faculty, $20 for Non-Members. $5 for youth 12 & under.

Register online at www.worldoregon.org.

The evening will feature:

- Introduction to the NEW Center for Turkish Studies
- A delicious traditional Turkish meal
- Reflections on Turkey from 2009 Summer Turkish Study Tour Teachers
- Enactment of a Turkish Folktale by Mythobolus Mask Theater
- Presentation of Turkish Folk Dance & Music from the Turkish/American Community
- Display & sales of Turkish Art & Artifacts by Ottoman Klasik, a local market place of fine Turkish Imports and Coffee in NE. Portland.
- Special opportunities for cultural exchange and learning between Turkish/Americans, Turkish students at PSU, those who love Turkey and the community at large.

620 SW Main St., Ste. 333, Portland, OR 97205

tel: 503.274.7488 | fax: 503.274.7489

e-mail: community@worldoregon.org

web: www.worldoregon.org

Three Portraits of Turkey

A Cultural Immersion Experience for the Community

Part 2 — A Vision of Turkey through Film and Discussion

Sponsored by The Turkish Cultural Foundation, In cooperation with World Affairs Councils of America, World Affairs Council of Oregon & The PSU Center for Turkish Studies

In celebration of the 86th Anniversary of the Republic of Turkey & the NEW PSU Center for Turkish Studies

Wednesday, November 4, 7:00–9:00 PM

PSU Smith Memorial Union, 1825 SW Broadway @ Harrison, Room 296/98, Portland, OR

$5 for World Affairs Council Members, PSU Students/Faculty, $10 for General Public

Register online at www.worldoregon.org.

The evening will feature:

- Crossing the Bridge: The Sound of Istanbul is a 2005 film/documentary directed by Fatih Akin. The film is a journey through the music scene in modern Istanbul, Turkey as well as portraying its cultural life. It features German musician Alexander Hacke as the narrator. Hacke and Akin traveled around Istanbul with a mobile recording studio and a microphone, assembling an inspired portrait of Turkish music — from arabesque to indie, rock and rap.
- A discussion of this film will be lead by Dr. Pelin Basci, PSU Professor of Turkish Language and Culture.
- Coffee, Tea and & a selection of Turkish desserts will be served.

WORLD
AFFAIRS
COUNCIL
of Oregon

620 SW Main St., Ste. 333, Portland, OR 97205

tel: 503.274.7488 | fax: 503.274.7489

e-mail: community@worldoregon.org

web: www.worldoregon.org

Three Portraits of Turkey

A Cultural Immersion Experience for the Community

Part 3 — The Arts and Crafts of Turkey

Sponsored by The Turkish Cultural Foundation, In cooperation with World Affairs Councils of America, World Affairs Council of Oregon & The PSU Center for Turkish Studies

In celebration of the 86th Anniversary of the Republic of Turkey & the NEW PSU Center for Turkish Studies

Sunday, November 8, 11:00 AM–5:00 PM

Ottoman Klasik, Turkish Coffee and Fine Imports, 5015 NE Fremont @ 50th, Portland, OR

Open House — Free Event

More information available at www.ottomanklasik.com or (503) 282-2848.

The evening will feature:

- Fun and informational presentations on Turkish artistry throughout the day
- Demonstration of Turkish coffee making, meze samplings and baklava treats
- Consulting advice from a Street of Dreams designer re: Turkish design elements
- What is my carpet saying? Signs and symbols in Turkish carpets – a mini-tutorial
- Drawings for great merchandise prizes.
- 35% discount for any items purchased that day.

620 SW Main St., Ste. 333, Portland, OR 97205

tel: 503.274.7488 | fax: 503.274.7489

e-mail: community@worldoregon.org

web: www.worldoregon.org