

College: College of Urban and Public Affairs

Department: Criminology & Criminal Justice

Program: Criminology & Criminal Justice

Degree: Master's

Graduate Program Learning Outcomes *

1. Identify organizational, political, economic, demographic, and cultural factors that shape criminal justice policies and people's perceptions of the U.S. justice system
2. Critically evaluate and apply criminal justice and criminological theories
3. Analyze and interpret patterns in criminal justice data
4. Conduct research synthesizing information on criminology and criminal justice topics
5. Communicate effectively through written reports and oral presentations
6. Articulate career goals and document evidence of professional growth

* As listed on the program webpage: <https://www.pdx.edu/criminology-criminal-justice/campus-masters-degree-in-criminology-and-criminal-justice>

7/17/2018 (bcs)

To update this information, please contact Brian Sandlin in OAA at bsandlin@pdx.edu.