2019 SUMMER IMMERSION PROGRAM
JULY 22 - AUGUST 16, 2019

Spend the summer immersing yourself in the study of architecture. Learn the design skills and concepts that architects use to transform ideas into real-world structures. Through drawing and model-making workshops, rigorous design exercises, discussions with professors and practicing architects, and field trips to significant architectural structures and design firms, you will emerge with new skills and a foundation for your architectural education.

The course is ideal for individuals who are fascinated by architecture and are eager to experience a real architecture studio course before embarking on a degree program.

Students will earn 6 undergraduate credits.
