Governing China is an enormous task. China’s president, Xi Jinping, is seeking effective solutions to challenges currently being faced, both old and new, within the Chinese political and social order. In this talk, drawing on his new book, Following the Leader, Dr. Lampton discusses Xi Jinping’s approach, prospects of progress, and what failure or success means for both China and the globe, among other pressing issues raised by China’s emergence as a major world power.

David M. Lampton is Hyman Professor and Director of China Studies at the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS), where he also heads SAIS China, the school’s overall presence in greater China. Chairman of The Asia Foundation, former president of the National Committee on United States-China Relations, and former Dean of Faculty at SAIS, he is the author of Following the Leader: Ruling China, from Deng Xiaoping to Xi Jinping (2014), The Three Faces of Chinese Power: Might, Money, and Minds (2008) and The Making of Chinese Foreign and Security Policy (editor, 2001).

CONTACT:
www.pdx.edu/asian-studies
503.725.8576
asianstudies@pdx.edu

Free & open to the public

PSU Institute for Asian Studies presents

Dr. David M. Lampton
Hyman Professor and Director of China Studies at the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies

China: Where Is It Headed and What Could It Mean?

Monday, April 13, 2015
5:15 - 5:45 PM - Book signing
6:00 PM - Lecture
PSU Academic & Student Rec Center Auditorium, Room 001
1800 SW 6th Ave

Copies of the book Following the Leader will be available for purchase at the event.