Among the college’s signature offerings, the Undergraduate Research and Mentoring Program (URMP) funds undergraduate research for students majoring in all Maseeh College undergraduate disciplines: Civil Engineering, Computer Science, Computer Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Environmental Engineering, and Mechanical Engineering. Additional opportunities may be available to students majoring in Chemistry and Physics.

Applications for 2015-16 due October 11!

Women and underrepresented students are highly encouraged to apply!

Program eligibility:
• Undergraduate PSU student in good academic standing
• US citizen or permanent resident (eligible to work in the United States)
• Strong academic record
• Interest in undergraduate research

To apply:
• Visit bit.ly/URMPApplication2016

Applications for 2016-17 due Sunday, October 2