All students and chaperons should meet the following criteria:

Students:
1) American citizen (has U.S. passport);
2) High school students; Age between 14 and 18; grades from 9 to 12;
3) Non-Chinese learning background and less than three years of Chinese learning experiences;
4) Have great interests in Chinese language and culture;
5) Healthy enough for international travel;
6) Willing to participate in all summer camp activities and comply with requirements.

Chaperons:
1) Respect and understand Chinese culture;
2) Good at communication and adaptable to new environments;
3) With K-12 teaching experiences;
4) Highly experienced in working with students;
5) Healthy enough for international travel;
6) Under 50 years old.

Chaperons also need to perform the following duties:
1) Assist Confucius Institutes/Classrooms in pre-departure training for students;
2) Participate in all summer camp activities with students and comply with requirements;
3) Take the primary responsibilities for the safety of students during summer camp;
4) Help students adapt to the environment and provide guidance for them;