Lecture: Teaching Chinese Characters and Related Issues

Speaker: Professor Cui Yonghua, Vice President of Beijing Language and Culture University, an internationally known scholar, expert and author and chief editor of several sets of books and textbooks in the field of Chinese linguistics and teaching of Chinese to speakers of other languages.

Professor Cui Yonghua graduated from Peking University in 1981 and began to engage in the Chinese language teaching and research ever since. He served as former Vice-President of Beijing Language and Culture University (in charge of teaching and research work), professor and researcher of Chinese linguistics and foreign language teaching. His research areas include, but not limited to: Chinese Grammar, Chinese language teaching, and taught at Oberlin College, Middlebury College Summer Chinese Language School, University of Goettingen in Germany, Sheffield University in UK, etc. His published works include: Classroom Teaching Skills in Teaching Chinese as a Foreign Language; Research Papers in Teaching Chinese as a Foreign; New Concept Chinese; International Chinese Course; Standard Chinese Course; Listen, Speaking and Watching Chinese; Disciplinary and Methodological Issues in Teaching Chinese to Speakers of Other Languages; to name a few.

Time: Wednesday, May 15, 2013. 6:30-8:00PM
Place: PSU East Hall 109 (632 SW Hall Street, Portland, OR 97201)
The CI Chinese Corner starts at 6:00 PM

Free and Open to the Public

For more information, please send an email to: Confucius@pdx.edu or call Confucius Institute at Portland State University at 503-725-9810