Performing an Oscar Wilde classic

The Importance of Being Earnest has it all: mistaken identity, the earnestness of young love and a delicious mystery set in a Victoria Station cloakroom. This wit-filled play takes center stage in Lincoln Hall Feb. 26-March 7. The Importance of Being Earnest is the most produced of Wilde's plays and in it he is the master of the bon mot and wicked epigram. Theater professor Karin Magaldi directs. Tickets cost $8 for faculty and staff and are available through the PSU Box Office. READ MORE

Faculty, staff invited to Residence Life open house

University Housing & Residence Life will host an open house from 4 to 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 4, offering information about campus residential options for current and incoming students. A designated tour for faculty and staff, led by UHRL Director Mike Walsh, will depart from Stephen Epler Hall at 4:30 p.m., and includes viewings of Stephen Epler, King Albert, St. Helens and Blumel halls. A map for self-guided tours of other buildings is available for pickup from Montgomery Court between 4 and 7:30 p.m. More information about UHRL is available online.

Campus Rec hosts free week

Entry to the Campus Recreation Center is free to anyone with a PSU ID for Sports and Fitness Week, Monday-Friday, Feb. 22-28. Free events during this week include bubble soccer, urban hikes, and exercise and dance classes. Full listings are available online for special events and regularly scheduled events.

ePSU Marketplace offers one-stop supplies shopping

Looking to restock office supplies, equipment or computer products? The new ePSU Marketplace offers a one-stop shop for multiple suppliers, including Office Depot/Office Max, Fisher Scientific and more. All purchases through ePSU Marketplace are paid with the University pCard, and because all charges go on the pCard bill, purchase orders and supplier invoices are not necessary. The system automatically charges for contracted prices from suppliers and offers immediate information on product availability and confirmation of purchases. Become a ePSU Marketplace authorized user online or email Contracts and Procurement Services at eprocm@pdx.edu.

Lincoln Hall gallery opens with paintings

The new Broadway Lobby Gallery in Lincoln Hall is featuring paintings by New York artist Rosemarie Beck. "Lyric Truth," on display Feb. 18-May 3, is a collaboration between the PSU College of the Arts and the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, as well as Portland Community College Rock Creek and the Oregon Jewish Museum. A multidisciplinary symposium around the exhibit will be held on Thursday, March 5. All events are free and open to the public. READ MORE

Proposals sought for CPL adaptation

Faculty members are invited to submit proposals to adapt existing courses to offer "credit for prior learning" through the Provosts Challenge #92: Giving Credit Where Credit is Due project. One-page proposal applications are due at 5 p.m. Monday, March 2. Selected courses will be developed for CPL by May 15 for the 2015-16 academic year, and faculty will receive an adaptation stipend. For more information email Project Manager Cornelia Coleman at colemanc@pdx.edu. Application forms are available online.

Learn about Portland State of Mind

Members of the PSU community who are looking to learn more about Portland State of Mind or who are planning to host an event during the week-long October celebration are invited to an information meeting from 1 to 2 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 25, in 238 Smith Union. The meeting will include a recap of the past three PSOM celebrations and a discussion of the 2015 PSOM dates, audiences and signature events. To attend, RSVP to event co-chair Chelsea Kastelnik by emailing ckast@pdx.edu.

Faculty invited to apply for athletic representative position

Course reduction and a summer stipend are available for the faculty member chosen as PSU Faculty Athletic Representative. Applications are now being accepted for the one-year position, which helps ensure academic standards are maintained and NCAA rules protecting student-athletes are followed. President Wim Wiewel will appoint the new representative, who will serve from July 1 to June 30, with the possibility of reappointment. Full-time appointed faculty members with status as a tenured associate or full professor are welcome to apply. READ MORE
