OUR MISSION

Provide an accessible, inclusive environment that enriches the university experience and engages students, their families, and the community. We serve and empower student populations whose access, retention, academic success, and graduation are most challenged by socio-historical factors and contemporary inequities.

Mission

The MCC explores our intersectional identities and seeks to develop cultural competency through student engagement, programming, and meaningful dialogue.

Facts & History:
The MCC first opened in 1993 after PSU students demanded a space on campus for students color. In 2018, we celebrated our 25th anniversary with a celebration planned by members of CRC Leadership Team.
Native American Student & Community Center

Mission

The NASCC is a gathering space to celebrate and empower student success through culturally relevant programming, academic support, and inter-generational community engagement to preserve Inter-tribal connection for Native American/Alaskan Native/Pacific Islander students and our allies through ceremony, and storytelling.

History:
The NASCC first opened on October 24th, 2003 after much planning, fundraising, and collaboration between Portland community members, Portland State University, and PSU Students.

Facts:

• INST Professor Sara Siestreem and interns completed a year long art curation project that involved creating art intake/care procedures and an NASCC art catalog book that the NASCC will sell to the general public.
• The NASCC has amended minor price increases and created a new pricing tier for the DMSS department.
• Honor Day 2018 was a success and included 24 graduates and featured Pacific Islanders Club dancers, Bull & Bears drumming, and a keynote speech from Winona LaDuke. Graduates also received honor necklaces made by the Siletz Tribe/NASCC staff, and honor blankets from 8th Generation Blankets.
• The rooftop garden is in preparation to receive a $10,000.00 CWSP Grant from the City of Portland which will support student gardeners and an updated vision for the plants.
• The Indigenous Nations Studies department held many of their class at the NASCC.

MISSION

Our mission is to make university life accessible to students with disabilities. We identify, evaluate, and reduce or eliminate barriers to student access throughout the PSU community. We focus on building partnerships and infrastructure that incorporates the principles of universal design sustainability, and social justice. We find creative solutions by proactively collaborating with students, faculty, and staff to develop an accessible and inclusive environment. Accommodations can be put in place for classroom, testing, study, housing, education abroad, internships/field placements, and more!
Accomplishments

• We experienced a 15% increase in students from 2016-17 to 2017-18.

• We produced a video to increase awareness about the availability of accommodations for students who have hidden disabilities. The video shows a student struggling and needing testing accommodations and then going through the process of registering with the DRC and receiving needed support. The video also features an international student, debunking the myth that international students aren't eligible for accommodations.

• We vastly improved our process in working with students who have a need for notetaking assistance. We now provide these students with notetaking workshops and technology in addition to note takers as needed.

• ASPSU and the DRC worked collaboratively to get the DRC more space this year! Ultimately, ASPSU gifted the DRC with 346 sq. ft. of their own space in order to create disability community and quiet study space.

• We hosted an event called “It’s Your Center”. The event provided students with a tangible disability community space at PSU for the first time. A giant art installation was created by students at the event and will be placed in the new DRC space.

MISSION
MRS provides academic support, advising, referrals, and advocacy to students who are first generation, low income and/or from diverse and multicultural backgrounds. We strive to ensure the academic success, retention and graduation of students through structured programs. Our services are designed to build a strong sense of community that is essential to successfully navigate PSU.
MRS offers four different first year retention programs to incoming PSU students. Each program is uniquely designed to enrich the experience of students looking to connect with the PSU diverse community. The programs assist new students in their transition to PSU, while building a multicultural campus community that is essential to student success. The programming, mentoring, and support that is provided by these programs, assists students in building a foundation that will result in continued success beyond the first year and ultimately lead to graduation.

Facts & History:
At the conclusion of WWII in 1945, Portland, Oregon experienced a wake of returning veterans. This resulted in a demand for a more efficiently trained workforce through greater opportunities in higher education the Vanport Extension Center. Portland State University (PSU) grew from the convergence of the WWII GI Bill and continues to grow with the Post 9/11, WWII GI Bill.

MISSION

The mission of the Veterans Resource Center (VRC) is to connect student veterans, service members and their families with a variety of services specific to their individual needs, support the transition “from rucksack to backpack,” and to help them to connect with one another. The VRC also provides service to VRC faculty and administrators who seek to better understand the unique cultural differences found in the student veteran community and how we can all work together cohesively and respectfully for the success of the PSU community.
