Portland Metro Sites

Get electric. Fly in, drive around, hop a train and take in all the sites of this country's greenest city. All without using a drop of gas.

A. Fly in and grab an electric Nissan LEAF from Enterprise.

B. Charge up and park in downtown with over fifty charging stations and access to electric light rail and the streetcar, you can spend days here and not spend a dime on gas.

C. The Oregon Museum of Science and Industry has a solar fuel stop where you can charge up. Check out the ever changing exhibits and see the electric submarine “Blueback”.

D. Lake Oswego is a great place to shop or relax. All the while, you can be getting your car charged.