Now accepting applications for Fall 2012

If you’ve been thinking about getting your Initial Administrator License, now is the time to apply for PSU’s one-year program. The fall 2012 cohorts are still accepting applications until July 15th. Applications received after July 15 will be considered, if space permits. Go to our website for admissions and registration information: http://www.pdx.edu/elp/initial-administrator-license-ial-admissions. It’s never too late to think about moving your career forward. If you are passionate about educational leadership, contact us today.

The Dan and Wink Show

Anyone who has ever met Dan Johnson and Wink Miller knows the joy and intensity they bring to engaging others in the field of educational leadership and policy. After teaching in the PSU Initial Administrator License (IAL) program cohorts for over 20 years, Johnson and Miller are retiring at the end of this academic year.

The IAL program has become a model for the preparation of principals and other administrators. Students and colleagues who have benefitted from their vast knowledge, enthusiasm for learning, and wisdom in leading schools will be sad to see them moving on. Dan Johnson holds the position of Distinguished Administrator in Residence at Portland State University. In that capacity he has responsibility for Portland State’s off campus programs leading to the administrative licenses. He has taught the IAL Program in the Mid-Willamette Valley. Wink Miller, Dan’s longtime friend and collaborator, describes Dan: “He is a kind and caring man – he loves his family and his friends. He serves his community– he is generous – he gives – a lot! Dan is great at making complex projects user friendly. His pattern of thinking and doing is clear. I always look forward to working with Dan.”

Johnson is author of the program’s School Law Primer and has worked extensively in Leadership Development. An administrator in the Salem-Keizer School District for 25 years, he has been a presenter at numerous national, regional, and local conferences and has served on many statewide and local committees and task forces.
Johnson is a graduate of North Park College in Chicago, Illinois, where he received the Alumni Association’s Award as the outstanding graduating senior and began his teaching career in Blue Island, Illinois, in 1968. He received his doctorate in Educational Leadership from Portland State University in the summer of 1991.

Winston “Wink” Miller has been co-teaching and facilitating the Mid Willamette Valley (Salem) Cohort of the IAL Program with Dan Johnson. Miller graduated from PSU in 1972 and earned his master’s in Counseling from Lewis and Clark College in 1974. His post-master’s principal and superintendent work was done at PSU and Lewis and Clark.

Miller formerly served in the Salem-Keizer School District for 26 years. He received the Excellence in Administrative Preparation Leadership Award from Portland State University. He was awarded the Leadership in Staff Development Award from the International Training Director’s Forum.

Johnson describes Wink Miller, saying, “There are so many things I admire about Wink. First, he is a truly steadfast friend. Second, he is passionate that all of education should be centered on the kids. The bureaucracy, organization, staff and resources should all be there to serve them, not vice versa. Third, Wink really understands good instruction and what makes for an excellent teacher. Fourth, he has been an incredible colleague and partner to work with. He complements well those areas where I am not as strong; he is imaginative and creative. He has been amazing to collaborate with and I think we have been a good team.”

Johnson and Miller were presented with the prestigious Instructional Leadership Award from COSA’s Institute for the Advancement of Leadership. The Johnson and Miller legacy in the Mid Willamette Valley educational leadership programs has been marked by enthusiasm, humor, courageous conversations, conflict with civility, academic rigor, and quality which cannot be overestimated. Their influence on educational leaders in the state of Oregon for over 20 years stands as a testimony to their dedication, passion for excellence, and inclusive practices. Former students and colleagues are invited to share their favorite memories of the “Dan and Wink Show” online by signing the guestbook at http://schoolofed.wordpress.com/dan-and-wink/.

To join us in celebration of their career achievements, see page 6 for details on the retirement party for Johnson and Miller.

Our program will prepare leaders in:

Diversity & Inclusiveness
- to work effectively with diverse populations
- to promote inclusive and therapeutic environments

Research-Based Practices & Professional Standards
- to critically analyze and implement research-based practices
- to demonstrate appropriate professional knowledge, skills, and dispositions

Impact on Learning and Development
- to ensure all learners and clients succeed
- to use technology to enhance learning
- to influence policy and provide leadership for organizations

Evidence-Informed Decision Making
- to use evidence to solve problems of practice and make educational and therapeutic decisions

Professor Emeritus, Dr. Tom Chenoweth, will offer a Special Topics: ELP 506 course this summer, covering the issues and implementation of Oregon Senate Bill-290. See page 5 for details.

Chenoweth, who semi-retired last year, is still advising doctoral candidates in Educational Leadership and Policy and has been collaborating with Father Peter Siamoo, EdD candidate, to create a partnership between Portland State University and the new Mwenge University in Tanzania, at the foot of Mount Kilimanjaro. Currently, PSU’s Graduate School of Education is hosting a book drive. You can help to fill the new Mwenge U library and make a difference in the lives of aspiring educational leaders in Tanzania. Your donation of new or used text books and teaching materials will help prepare teachers and educators to inspire the next generation of students. Drop boxes are located on the 2nd, 5th, and 6th floors of the ED building till August 1, 2012.
