Disregarded entity

For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a "disregarded entity." See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, "Business name/disregarded entity name." If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Payees Exempt From Backup Withholding

Even if the payee does not provide a TIN in the manner required, you are generally not required to backup withhold on any payments you make if the payee is:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2);
2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities;
3. A state, the District of Columbia, a U.S. commonwealth or possession, or any of their political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities;
4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities;
5. A corporation;
6. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a U.S. commonwealth or possession;
7. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission;
8. A real estate investment trust;
9. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940;
10. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a);
11. A financial institution;
12. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian; or
13. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

Foreign Individuals or Entities

Portland State University now requires a W-8 form for all foreign individuals or entities regardless of the type of payment. There are five different types of W-8 forms. The foreign alien or entity will need to determine which type of form applies to them; they will need to fill out the appropriate form; and they will need to mail the form to the department making the request.

A brief description of each form is listed below along with the links to the various W-8 forms and their instructions. Please refer to the instruction forms for specific details about each W-8 form.

W-8BEN:	Used only for individuals to claim foreign status or treaty benefits. It is also used by individuals to claim treaty benefits for royalty/passive income. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• A U.S. tax identification number is required for exemption from tax withholding.• All fields in line 10 must be completed to claim exemption on Royalty payments.
W-8BEN-E:	Used by foreign entities (non-individuals) documenting foreign status, documenting chapter 4 status, or claiming treaty benefits.
W-8ECI:	Used primarily by the payee or beneficial owner indicating that all the income that is listed on the form is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The type of income must be identified on Line 9 of the form to qualify for exemption. If it is not listed we are required to obtain from the entity a different type of W-8 form.• A U.S. tax identification number is required for exemption from tax withholding.
W-8EXP:	Used by the following entities to claim exemption from tax withholding – foreign governments, foreign tax exempt organization, foreign private foundation, govt. of a U.S. possession, or foreign central bank of issue. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The entity must be claiming exemption under IRS code 115(2), 501(c), 892, 895, or 1443(b). Otherwise they need to file a W-8BEN-E or W-8ECI.
W-8IMY:	Used by an intermediary, a withholding foreign partnership, a withholding foreign trust, or flow through entity. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Copies of appropriate withholding certificates, documentary evidence, and withholding statements must be attached to the W-8IMY as well.

Again, the entity type will determine which form will need to be complete.
