Where Do We Come From?

Ethnicity refers to the cultural characteristics that a group has in common. These may include language, religion, country of origin, or other shared characteristics.

The width of the arrow is proportional to the number of people moving to Oregon from other regions of the United States.

Migration to Oregon within United States

The width of the arrow is proportional to the number of people moving to Oregon from other regions of the United States.

Place of Birth of Oregonians

Native Oregonian 45.5%
Born in West 25.3%
Born in Northeast 3.5%
Born in Midwest 10%
Born in South 5.2%
Foreign Born 9.7%

The width of the arrow is proportional to the number of people moving to Oregon from other regions of the United States.