

Human Geography 2023-2024 AY

GEOG 230 Environment & Society: Global Perspectives

GEOG 230 is required for all upper-level Human Geography courses.

Human-Environment & Resource Geography	Cultural & Urban Geography	Regional & International Geography
GEOG 340U Global Water Issues & Sustainability	GEOG 332U Urban Geography	GEOG 321 Mt. Hood
GEOG 345U Resource Management	GEOG 348U Cultural and Political Ecology	GEOG 325 Contemporary India
GEOG 347U Environmental Issues and Actions	GEOG 375U Maps, Culture, and Society	GEOG 331U Geography of Globalization
GEOG 348U Cultural and Political Ecology	GEOG 4/530 Cultural Geography	GEOG 346U World Population and Food Supply
GEOG 4/540 The Ecology and Management of Wildfire	GEOG 4/532 Urban Landscapes	GEOG 349U Mountain Geography
GEOG 4/544 Political Ecologies of the Western US	GEOG 4/542 Sustainable Cities	GEOG 350U Geography of World Affairs
GEOG 4/545 Resource Management Topics	GEOG 4/562 Sense of Place	GEOG 351U Pacific Northwest
GEOG 4/546 Water Resource Management	GEOG 4/572 Critical GIS	GEOG 352U The Himalaya and Tibet
GEOG 4/547 Urban Streams		GEOG 353U Pacific Rim
GEOG 4/548 The Urban Forest		GEOG 354U Europe
GEOG 4/549 Geography of Food		GEOG 360U Latin America
GEOG 4/567 Community resilience in Coupled Socio-Ecological Systems		GEOG 363U Africa
		GEOG 364U The Middle East
		GEOG 366U Historical Geography of North America
		GEOG 368U United States and Canada
		GEOG 370U Global Migration

GEOG 4/525 Field Methods in Human Geography

Note: Special Topics classes (GEOG 399 and GEOG 410) and Seminars (GEOG 407) often will fit one of the Human Geography interest tracks.

Contact the Geography Department for information on specific courses.