Congratulations and best regards.

Across the educational community in your state Society, among the entire Alliance Network, and the many friends you have knowledge that I express a chorus of voices within the National Geographic I am privileged to sign this memo into my personal name and do so in the economy, and citizens of a truly diverse and shared planet, students have been inspirational.

their enthusiasm and energy on behalf of both educators and their years of commitment to the improvement of geography education in the United The National Geographic Society is deeply grateful for your contributions and geographic literacy of the next generation.

leadership you have earned your seat. Indeed the nation, to ensure the Network of Alliances is my pleasure to express appreciation for the dedicated in appreciation for your service as a Coordinator in the National Geographic

Dr. Teresa Buhman