

CERTIFICATE IN GLOBAL STUDIES

A Certificate in Global Studies may be earned simultaneously with a BA or BS degree, or post baccalaureate in any major. The certificate offers students an opportunity to be recognized for their interest in and awareness of globalization and global studies in all of its aspects – economic, cultural, political, environmental and social.

The Certificate in Global Studies consists of 20 graded credits (C or above) of global studies or globalization-focused work. The 20 credits include a 4-credit foundational course and 16 credits of elective coursework.

Students completing an International Studies major or minor are not be eligible to receive a global studies certificate.

- 1) Students must select one (4 credits) from among the following foundational classes. These courses introduce concepts including, nationalism, globalization, colonialism, imperialism, etc. and explore how the world works in general economic, political and social terms. This requirement can also be fulfilled with transfer and/or study abroad course work. (SOC 320 and GEOG 331 can also count so long as 20 credits are completed.)
