It is recommended that you meet with a faculty or CUPA Advisor at least once a year. You are welcome to check in every term. After your first meeting with a CUPA advisor you should schedule a meeting with an faculty member who specializes in your region of focus. Your meeting with a regional focus advisor should take place before the end of your junior year.

For more information, or to arrange an appointment with an advisor, visit our advising page at <https://www.pdx.edu/intl/international-global-studies-advising>

Applications for a March graduation are due in September, for a June graduation in January, and for an August graduation in April.

NOTE FOR STUDENTS USING PRIOR CATALOG YEARS:

INTL 296: U.S. and the World was numbered as INTL 396 (same title) prior to Fall 2020.

INTL 415: Global Studies Theories was known as INTL 390: Foundations of Global Studies.

Students who joined the major using a catalog year prior to 2020/2021, can take INTL 296 in place of INTL 396, and INTL 415 in place of INTL 390.
