This list has been compiled with a specific focus on doctoral research in health systems and policy and health services research.

The first point of contact for students should be Portland State University’s Office of Graduate Studies: http://www.pdx.edu/ogs/external-scholarships-and-awards

The Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) offers financial aid for health care research training and career development (pre- and post-doctoral fellowships, and dissertations); the most relevant will be Health Services Research Dissertation Awards: http://www.ahrq.gov/funding/training-grants/rsrchtng.html#HRSDA

The National Institutes of Health (NIH) provides information on research training and research career opportunities: http://grants.nih.gov/training/index.htm

AcademyHealth maintains a list of scholarships and fellowships relevant to health services research: http://www.academyhealth.org/Training/ResourceDetail.cfm?ItemNumber=2143&navItemNumber=1987

The Social Sciences Research Council maintains a list of active fellowship opportunities for graduate students: http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships/all/

The U.S. Department of Education provides a portal for students seeking federal and other types of financial aid: http://studentaid.ed.gov/

The Fulbright U.S. Student Program provides fellowships for research and study abroad. Details are available at: http://us.fulbrightonline.org/fulbright-us-student-program