

Helen Gordon Child Development Center

Teaching as a Political Act & Inquiry Based Learning

2020 Spring Professional Development Initiative

April 4th, 2020

You are invited to join Helen Gordon Center Educators, Inventing ReMida Portland Project, and our inspired colleagues for the 2020 HG CDC Professional Development Initiative

Saturday, April 4th 8:00am-4:00pm

- A keynote with John Nimmo, co-author of Leading Anti-Bias Early Childhood Programs: A Guide for Change (2015), Loris Malaguzzi and the Teachers (2015), and Emergent Curriculum (1994) and the co-producer of the international film The Voices of Children.
- School tours and classroom visitations
- Visual narratives and hands-on sessions
- Facilitated interest group dialogue sessions
- Reflections and Impressions of the day

*Morning refreshments and lunch provided on site by Helen Gordon Center chefs

We hope these intentional engagements will open new pathways to consider within your own school.

Registration deadline is March 30th, 2020

Event cost - $150,

Group Rate - $135 (3 or more people)

Registration forms available at:

www.pdx.edu/helen-gordon-center/initiatives

1609 SW 12th Avenue, Portland, OR 97201
Contact: 503.725.3092, jkonefal@pdx.edu

