Position Number: D93213
Job Title: Senior Professor and Director of Chicano and Latino Studies
Department: Chicano and Latino Studies
FTE: 1.0 benefits eligible
Job Type: Administrative
Posted Date: June 19th 2012

Position Summary:

The Chicano/Latino Studies Program invites applicants for a Senior Professor and Program Director in the Chicano/Latino Studies Program in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at Portland State University to begin September 1, 2013. We seek an individual with proven excellence in teaching and commitment to research in Chicano/Latino Studies and with experience and skills to serve as Director of the Program. Area of teaching and research is open.

Chicano/Latino Studies is a rapidly growing interdisciplinary program at Portland State University that presently offers a certificate in Chicano/Latino Studies and serves over 1000 students each year. The position of the Director is responsible for managing of the program, including budget, staff hiring and management, developing curriculum, and establishing a research agenda for the program. In addition, the position is responsible for working with other academic units in creating a School of Gender, Race, and Nation.

Essential Duties:
- Creates an environment that acknowledges, encourages, and celebrates differences.
- Functions and communicates effectively and respectfully within the context of varying beliefs, behaviors, orientations, identities, and cultural backgrounds.
- Seeks opportunities to gain experience working and collaborating in diverse, multicultural, and inclusive settings with a willingness to change for continual improvement.
- Adheres to all of PSU’s policies including the policies on Prohibited Discrimination & Harassment and the Professional Standards of Conduct.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Ph.D. in Ethnic Studies, or other related fields,
- Experience in program development and management,
- Solid history of publications in refereed journals in the area of specialization,
- Demonstrated ability to raise external funding and research support,
- Demonstrated ability to work with local and national communities

Compensation:

Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience and qualifications. Portland State University has excellent healthcare and retirement programs.
To Apply:

Please send cover letter, a statement describing ongoing research, teaching philosophy, three letters of recommendation, and a curriculum vitae to:

Prof. Roberto De Anda
Chicano/Latino Studies
Portland State University
P.O. Box 751
Portland, OR 97207-0751

Screening of Applicants will begin October 1, 2012 and continue until the position is filled.

Portland State University is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity institution and welcomes applications from diverse candidates and candidates who support diversity.