This is a highly interactive course that will cover the planning and design of on-street bikeway facilities and how to integrate them into existing and new collector and arterial streets. The course includes both classroom and on-bike experiential learning, relying on the experience of Portland – the #1 large city for cycling in the U.S. Participants will gain knowledge and proficiency in the application of different types of bikeway facilities. Material will include the planning, design, implementation, and maintenance of various types of bicycle facilities including:

- Shared Lanes
- Bike lanes
- Bike Boulevards
- Shoulder Treatments
- Cycle Tracks
- Bicycle Boxes (aka Advanced Stop Lines)

The course will cover the principles of:

- Bikeway facility selection
- Integrating bikeways into roadway design
- Retrofitting existing streets
- Intersection design
- Bridges
- Bicycle parking

Rob Burchfield, PE, is the City Traffic Engineer for the Portland Bureau of Transportation. He has 25 years of municipal experience and has worked extensively with the design and operation of urban streets for bicyclists and pedestrians.

Roger Geller has been Portland, Oregon’s Bicycle Coordinator since 2000 and has been with the city’s Bicycle Program since 1994. He has 15 years of experience managing bicycle capital, planning and policy projects.

Professional Development and Continuing Education
Courses offered by IBPI may satisfy continuing professional competency requirements for professional development as a condition for licensure or certification renewal. It is the responsibility of the individual to check with the certifying board or agency to determine if the course qualifies, and, in most cases, to maintain records to support credits claimed. IBPI provides a completion certificate for each course that documents attendance, course title, date, location and course instructor. Additional information can be provided upon request to satisfy certification requirements.

Refunds, credits & substitutions
To cancel your registration and receive a refund less a $50 processing fee, you must notify the Center for Transportation Studies at least three working days before the course is scheduled to begin. Notification must be made in writing, sent by e-mail to ibpi@pdx.edu, or by fax to 503.725.8480. In lieu of canceling a registration, you may send a substitute in your place by notifying us at least two working days before the class is scheduled to begin.

When you register for a workshop, we’ll add you to our mailing list. ☐ Please check here if you DO NOT want to be added.
