Farewell to Orpheus
Frederic Littman, 1968
Cast bronze sculpture depicts Eurydice, the wife of Orpheus. In Greek mythology, Orpheus tried to bring Eurydice back from the dead, but she was taken back to the underworld as he glanced behind him to make sure she was there. South Park Blocks between Smith Student Union and Cramer Hall

Oregon Country
Thomas Hardy, 1962
Hardy’s biggest piece, this bronze sculpture on the exterior of Neuberger Hall took a year to complete. It depicts the landscape of Oregon from west to east with sea life, the coast range, the Willamette Valley, Cascades, and John Day Fossil Beds. 724 SW Harrison, Park Blocks side of Neuberger Hall
