Enroll in this hybrid course and set yourself up for success! This course focuses on helping advanced-level multilingual students refine their written and oral academic English communication skills.

The cost of this course is $482, which is more affordable than the 1 credit non-resident graduate tuition ($671). Students enrolled in the course can opt-in with $140 fee for accessing IELP Learning Center resources. The resources include but are not limited to weekly individual tutoring and conversation partner sessions.

LING 199: Intro to Graduate Studies at PSU
CRN: 65110  2 credits
10AM-11:50AM Wednesdays
Instructor: Linnea Spitzer (linneas@pdx.edu)

Intro to Graduate Studies at PSU provides students with the information they need to be successful graduate students at Portland State, from navigating Banweb to finding funding through scholarships, grants, and internships. This class also introduces students to a range of support options, including the Center for Student Health and Counseling (SHAC) services, the PSU Learning Center, and department-specific advising and social groups.
