Embryo Embryonic Hebrew Culture Acquisition, Athletics, and Diversity in the Jewish Community of Mandate Palestine

by Nina G. Segal

Professor of Israel Studies

In this talk, embodiment studies scholar Dr. Segal demonstrates how the political and social issues can influence a new society and provides a dynamic framework for interpreting precolonial Jewish culture. The talk will include references to Dr. Segal’s and renowned scholar Dr. Carol Goldman’s works. Professor Emeritus of Sociology and Jewish Studies, Brown University, as well as observations, and copies of the book for sale. Parking is available free to the first 100. Please RSVP to Dr. Kaiden Kirschen at (505) 760-2808 or kirschenh@psu.edu.

Location: Breathing Living Room 208, Smith Memorial Student Union, 1235 SW Broadway
Date: Thursday, October 24 at 7:00 PM, Reception to follow

NOW EMORILLING: Judaic Studies (Fall 2013) in portable file

An Invitation – Co-sponsored Event
A Rich Brew of Ideas: Urban Cats and Jewish Modernism

On October 14, Anna Pillaro (Associate Professor of Hebrew Literature and Culture at the University of Michigan) will give a talk at Reed College entitled “A Rich Brew of Ideas: Urban Cats and Jewish Modernism.” [1:4–4 p.m.] Professor Pillaro is the author of “Library Passports: The Making of Modernist Hebrew Fiction in Europe” (Harvard University Press, 2012).

Scholarships Announcement
The Sara Ginsberg Cogan Scholarship is awarded annually to full-time Portland State University undergraduate students who undertake independent research in the field of Jewish culture or in Jewish-related topics in local Jewish cultural and cultural organizations. The scholarship is a token of students for all backgrounds who are pursuing the major in various degrees. The deadline for the 2010-15 will be at Jewish Theatre Company and the Oregon Jewish Museum.

The Jacobs-Kaufman and Shifler Scholarships are awarded to students pursuing the major in minor degree in Judaic Studies and who demonstrate both financial need and academic merit.

Student interested in applying for scholarships should contact Jeanne Kaiden Kaiden at Judaic Studies as soon as possible to receive application details. Please email kaiden@psu.edu.

The Jews of al-Andalus: Understanding Medieval Spanish Jewish Culture

Location: Smith Memorial Student Union, Room 208
Date: Tuesday, October 16, 2013
Time: Event will begin at 4:30 PM

Judaic Studies @ PSU: October 2013 News

Dr. María Ángeles Gallego is a Tesorero Researcher and Deputy Director of the Collaborative Research Center in Language and Cultures of the Mediterranean and the New East, Spanish-Spanish High Council for Scientific Research (Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas) and University of Alcalá (Spain). Dr. Gallego completed her Ph.D. in Medieval Philology at Complutense University of Madrid (Spain). She has taught at University of Alcalá (Spain), Saint Louis University (Madrid), and the University of Buenos Aires (Argentina). She is a specialist in the study of post-1492 Jewish history and culture in interna- West-Andalucía, Hebrew and Arabic Linguistics, and Medieval Iberians.

Page290page takes you on a journey from book to stage. Original performances along the way bring the understanding of the novel's plot and personalize its characters. Your journey culminates with a World-Premiere adaptation of Shemon’s novel.

ACT 1 – Chapter One
In the world of the novel!

SPECIAL PERFORMANCE
Tuesday, November 19th at PSU’s Lincoln Hall.

Take the Journey with Us

Judaic Studies @ PSU: October 2013 News

Embryo Embryonic Hebrew Culture Acquisition, Athletics, and Diversity in the Jewish Community of Mandate Palestine

by Nina G. Segal

Professor of Israel Studies

In this talk, embodiment studies scholar Dr. Segal demonstrates how the political and social issues can influence a new society and provides a dynamic framework for interpreting precolonial Jewish culture. The talk will include references to Dr. Segal’s and renowned scholar Dr. Carol Goldman’s works. Professor Emeritus of Sociology and Jewish Studies, Brown University, as well as observations, and copies of the book for sale. Parking is available free to the first 100. Please RSVP to Dr. Kaiden Kirschen at (505) 760-2808 or kirschenh@psu.edu.

Location: Breathing Living Room 208, Smith Memorial Student Union, 1235 SW Broadway
Date: Thursday, October 24 at 7:00 PM, Reception to follow

NOW EMORILLING: Judaic Studies (Fall 2013) in portable file

An Invitation – Co-sponsored Event
A Rich Brew of Ideas: Urban Cats and Jewish Modernism

On October 14, Anna Pillaro (Associate Professor of Hebrew Literature and Culture at the University of Michigan) will give a talk at Reed College entitled “A Rich Brew of Ideas: Urban Cats and Jewish Modernism.” [1:4–4 p.m.] Professor Pillaro is the author of “Library Passports: The Making of Modernist Hebrew Fiction in Europe” (Harvard University Press, 2012).

Scholarships Announcement
The Sara Ginsberg Cogan Scholarship is awarded annually to full-time Portland State University undergraduate students who undertake independent research in the field of Jewish culture or in Jewish-related topics in local Jewish cultural and cultural organizations. The scholarship is a token of students for all backgrounds who are pursuing the major in various degrees. The deadline for the 2010-15 will be at Jewish Theatre Company and the Oregon Jewish Museum.

The Jacobs-Kaufman and Shifler Scholarships are awarded to students pursuing the major in minor degree in Judaic Studies and who demonstrate both financial need and academic merit.

Student interested in applying for scholarships should contact Jeanne Kaiden Kaiden at Judaic Studies as soon as possible to receive application details. Please email kaiden@psu.edu.

The Jews of al-Andalus: Understanding Medieval Spanish Jewish Culture

Location: Smith Memorial Student Union, Room 208
Date: Tuesday, October 16, 2013
Time: Event will begin at 4:30 PM

Judaic Studies @ PSU: October 2013 News

Dr. María Ángeles Gallego is a Tesorero Researcher and Deputy Director of the Collaborative Research Center in Language and Cultures of the Mediterranean and the New East, Spanish-Spanish High Council for Scientific Research (Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas) and University of Alcalá (Spain). Dr. Gallego completed her Ph.D. in Medieval Philology at Complutense University of Madrid (Spain). She has taught at University of Alcalá (Spain), Saint Louis University (Madrid), and the University of Buenos Aires (Argentina). She is a specialist in the study of post-1492 Jewish history and culture in interna- West-Andalucía, Hebrew and Arabic Linguistics, and Medieval Iberians.