The Lorry I. Lokey Endowed Fund for Israel Scholarship

The Lorry I. Lokey Endowed Fund for Israel Scholarship awards $2,000 annually to one full-time Judaic Studies major for study abroad in Israel, either during the academic year or the summer.

How to Apply

Students who wish to apply should complete the departmental scholarship application. The application requires a 1-2 page statement of interest explaining personal and academic goals for study in Israel, and 2 faculty letters of recommendation. Applicants will be selected on the basis of academic performance and personal goals. Minimum qualifications are:

- Student must be a Judaic Studies major
- 12 credit hours completed in Judaic Studies, JST faculty-instructed, or Hebrew language courses
- Minimum GPA of 3.0

Deadline for applications is March 31, 2015.
