The Fariborz Maseeh Department of Mathematics and Statistics at Portland State University invites applications for a tenure track position in Mathematics and/or Statistics, to begin Fall 2014. The intent is to fill this faculty position at the Assistant Professor level in an area compatible with those currently represented in the department (http://www.pdx.edu/math). Applicants must have a Ph.D. either in Mathematics, Statistics, or the equivalent. We are seeking applicants who can demonstrate the potential for conducting high quality independent research, contributing to our Ph.D. programs, and securing external funding.

The successful candidate will be required to teach graduate and undergraduate courses, and actively participate in supervising graduate students, as well as to conduct research. It is expected that the new hire will contribute to our novel Mathematical Sciences Ph.D. program (http://www.pdx.edu/math/ph-d-mathematical-sciences) in part by offering new courses and attracting outstanding students.

Qualified applicants are requested to submit curriculum vitae, a statement of research interest that details what the candidate brings to this position, a description of teaching philosophy, and at least three letters of recommendation. The required material (in PDF format) is to be sent to the Mathematical Sciences Search Committee at mathstatposition@pdx.edu.

Consideration of applications will begin January 2, 2014 and will continue until the position is filled.

Portland is consistently ranked as one of the world’s most livable cities, and Portland State University has established a record of excellence in research, teaching, community outreach, and sustainability. Please see www.pdx.edu for more details.
