

The Careers in International Affairs and Development Series Presents:

“Career Opportunities in the US Government Foreign Affairs Agencies”

Have a passion for government work or working with international groups but not sure about your career options?

Come hear from PSU Alum and Professor Peter Bechtold about careers and opportunities of working in the 12 US Government Foreign Agencies. Please join us to expand your understanding of the many options available for government work with this informational presentation. This is a free event with light lunch provided.

Event Specifics:

College of Urban and Public Affairs

506 SW Mill Street

Parsons Gallery, Room 212

Monday, November 13, 2017

12:00pm-1:30pm

Light lunch and beverage provided

For questions regarding the event please contact Middle East Studies Center Program Administrator
Jamie Surface: surfacej@pdx.edu; 503.725.5467

Sponsored by: Middle East Studies Center, Hatfield School of Government, World Languages and Literatures Department

