Jumpstart Your Summer Academic Writing Goals

April 25, 2014 | 3:00 to 5:00 pm | SMSU 209 Mezzanine

Session Description

Academic writing has its own set of tacit rules. Faculty members have never been taught these rules and yet understanding them is essential for scholarly productivity and continued success. This luncheon will focus on three strategies designed to unveil some of the secrets of successful academic writing to sustain motivation and increase productivity. Insights from these "secrets" guide you toward establishing a satisfying writing practice and a prolific publication profile. Discussion will focus on

1. Knowing the habits of successful academic writers
2. Analyzing the unique language of academic writing
3. Experimenting with new strategies to build a foundation for a sustainable and satisfying academic writing life.

Pre-session background reading

The session will address some of the discussion items from Chapter 25 – 29 of The Essential College Professor by Jeffrey L. Buller. If you did not receive a copy of the book from the New Faculty Orientation, you may borrow the book from the Library Reserve (ask for the book listed as OAA 001) or the Office of Academic Innovation (OAI), SMSU 209. For OAI resource library, call Patrice Hudson at 503.725.8327

Presenters and Facilitators

Dannelle Stevens, Faculty-in-Residence, Office of Academic Innovation
Accompanied by 1-2 long-term Jumpstart Program faculty

Welcome

Randy Hitz, Dean of the Graduate School of Education

Reception

Food and beverages will be provided

CLICK HERE TO RSVP