

OCATE MISSION STATEMENT AND STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES

(Adopted by the Oregon State Board of Higher Education, Meeting #534, February 21, 1986, p. 71. See also Meeting #533, January 17, 1986, pp. 6-8 and 35-40.)

The Oregon Center for Advanced Technology Education (OCATE) will act as a facilitator, coordinator, and promoter of cooperative, world-class, graduate-level, advanced technology education. OCATE will bring together the best faculty from Oregon's public and private higher education institutions, leading industrial researchers, and out-of-state experts to provide state-of-the-art technological and business education to the advanced technology industries in Oregon.
