

College: CLAS
Department: Psychology
Degrees: B.A./B.S.

Psychology Undergraduate Program Learning Outcomes

1. Application of psychology to everyday life.
2. Diversity and cultural context.
3. Ethical considerations in research.
4. Group interaction skills.
5. Meta-substantive category: Contemporary issues, synthesis of natural and social science, integrating contributions of behavioral, cognitive, biological, social, and developmental psychology.
6. Personal knowledge, insight, and skills: Ability to pursue employment or graduate or professional school, evaluate personal strengths and weaknesses, confidence to learn over lifetime.
7. Research design and methodology and statistics.
8. Supporting skills: Database research, data presentation in a variety of formats, written summaries, effective use of relevant technologies, ability to speak and write effectively in the discourse of the discipline.
9. Thinking scientifically about psychology.