Start a new club!

Don’t see what you’re looking for? Rec Cubs are student led and formed by groups of students who have a common interest in sport and recreation. Visit our website to learn how you can start a club.

*Unified Sports joins people with and without intellectual disabilities on the same team. It was inspired by a simple principle: playing together is a quick path to friendship and understanding.
We offer a variety of drop-in sports options for members. During these scheduled times, the Rec Center identifies activities that take priority on specific courts.

All activities are organized by the participants and house rules are posted in the gym to help keep the games moving and members rotating through the activities.
