A 4x4 means doing four bouldering routes, four times each. For the intermediate group this should be V1, V2, V2, V3, and adjust for your level. To train power endurance, try to do these on overhung walls. Between each set of four try not to rest, go until you can’t! If you can’t hold on anymore take a brief rest so that you still have a slight pump sensation and continue.