

Flow Chart for Confidential IPV Advocate Services

- Student schedules to meet with a confidential Interpersonal Violence (IPV) Advocate.
- Student discloses to IPV Advocate the details of what occurred. No report is made to university officials or law enforcement.
 - Exception: if the student is under the age of 18, the IPV Advocate reports incident to Oregon Department of Human Services or law enforcement, as required by Oregon child abuse reporting laws.
- IPV Advocate develops a safety plan and academic support, per the student's request. This may include:
 - A mutual No Contact Order,
 - Change in classrooms or on-campus housing,
 - Extensions on course assignments or exams, or
 - Other measures, as requested.
- IPV Advocate may provide referral to Student Health and Counseling (SHAC), Student Legal Services or off campus resources.
- IPV Advocate informs student of reporting options. If Student desires, IPV Advocate assists student in filing a complaint with the Office of Dean of Student Life (DOSL), Office of Equity and Compliance (OEC) or law enforcement and provides support during the investigative process.

See DOSL or OEC's flow charts for investigative processes.
