

SEXUAL AND RELATIONSHIP VIOLENCE RESOURCES

Portland State University is committed to supporting students' safe access to their education. Sexual assault, sexual and gender-based harassment, dating & domestic violence and stalking are all prohibited at PSU. Students have many options for support, both on and off campus, and for reporting. Confidential advocates or PSU's Title IX Coordinator are available to share and explain those options with students and address any additional needs or concerns.

ON-CAMPUS CONFIDENTIAL SUPPORT SERVICES:

Confidential Advocates

1825 SW Broadway, Suite 439 (SMSU) | 503.894.7982

Students at PSU have a right to confidential advocacy in order to understand all their reporting options and Title IX rights, and to access wraparound support.

Call and request an appointment with a confidential advocate (503.894.7982) or book online at psuwrc.youcanbook.me

For more information about confidential advocacy services at PSU, please visit the SRVR Program website.

Confidential Advocates are specially-trained in the dynamics of sexual and relationship violence and provide support within the PSU Sexual & Relationship Violence Response Program. Advocates explain the rights and options available to students when they have experienced circumstances such as dating/domestic violence, stalking, sexual harassment, and sexual assault. Confidential advocates provide:

- A safe, non-judgmental space to discuss your unique circumstances and experiences
- Knowledgeable support regarding reporting options on and off campus which can include Student Conduct, Title IX, or law enforcement

- Assistance with safety planning to ensure a student's ability to safely attend classes, work on campus, and participate in campus life, etc.
- Assistance in requesting academic support measures, including extensions, incompletes, withdrawals and dropped courses, or a change in classroom or course section
- Assistance in navigating on-campus housing lease breaks or room changes, or access to emergency housing
- Assistance with writing off-campus lease break support letters
- Assistance in connecting to medical or mental health resources such as Student Health and Counseling
- Assistance in applying for the Crime Victim Compensation Program
- Assistance with accessing legal services and protective orders
- Support and accompaniment through any ongoing campus processes which can include but aren't limited to filing formal grievances, participating in Title IX investigations, and Student Conduct hearings
- Unconditional support for any choices you make regarding accessing services, reporting to law enforcement and campus officials, and navigating on-and off-campus services

Students can disclose information to confidential advocates that will not be released to university officials or law enforcement without the students' consent, with limited exceptions.

Exceptions to Advocate confidentiality include: (1) if the student seeking services indicates an intent to harm others; (2) if the student reveals abuse or neglect of a child, including oneself if the student is under the age of 18, or of an elderly or disabled adult; (3) if a court of law orders disclosure of information.

Confidentiality, in these cases, will be limited to the extent the law permits or requires.

The Center for Student Health and Counseling (SHAC)

1880 SW 6th Ave | 503.725.2800

SHAC provides confidential health and mental health care to registered PSU students, including:

- individual and group therapy
- emergency and crisis support services and
- trauma-informed sexual assault nurse services.

Any information you share with a SHAC employee will not be disclosed to outside parties without your written consent, except in very limited exceptions as required by law.

The exceptions to confidentiality may include: (1) if the student seeking services indicates an intent to harm oneself or others; (2) if the student reveals abuse or neglect of a child, including oneself if the student is under the age of 18, or of an elderly or disabled adult; (3) if a court of law orders disclosure of information about your treatment; (4) if you initiate legal proceedings regarding your mental health treatment, or use mental illness as a defense in a criminal or civil action; (5) if you are diagnosed with a reportable disease as required by the State Health Department; or (6) if you are at risk of operating a motor vehicle. Confidentiality in these cases will be limited as required by law.

Student Legal Services (SLS)

1825 SW Broadway, (SMSU) M343 | 503.725.4556

- Student Legal Services (SLS) provides free, confidential legal advice, advocacy and representation on a wide range of legal issues for eligible students.
- All consultations are subject to attorney/client privilege. This means that any information that you share with an SLS employee are not only confidential, but also privileged and will not be disclosed to anyone outside of the SLS office without your consent except in extremely limited circumstances.
- The types of legal issues student survivors have accessed in the past include but are not limited to restraining orders, protective orders, divorces, child custody disputes, victim assistance through criminal court proceedings, landlord tenant disputes, consumer credit disputes, reasonable accommodations for employment and off campus housing and unemployment appeals to name a few.

- SLS cannot provide assistance in student vs. current PSU student or student vs. PSU employee/university cases, but SLS will provide referrals.
