Information for Community Members

Are you a non–PSU Student who has been harmed by a PSU student or PSU staff or faculty member? You have the right to make a report to any of the entities below.

For advocacy support, please call the 24-hour Portland Women’s Crisis Line at 503–235–5333

There are multiple ways to make a report on and off campus, and you can make reports to different offices and entities at the same time.

- Campus Public Safety: 503-725-4404

  Campus Public Safety can be reached 24 hours a day and will work with Portland Police Bureau and the Office of the Dean of Students as appropriate to follow up on the report.

- Portland Police Bureau: Call 911 or 503-823-3333

- Student Code of Conduct Complaint: (503)725-4422

  This report is applicable if your situation involves a PSU student. Go to the Student Code of Conduct webpage for more information on filing a complaint, or call the Office of The Dean of Student Life at (503)725-4422.

- Office of Equity and Compliance: 503-725-5919

  This report is applicable if your incident involves faculty or staff. Go to the Office of Equity and Compliance website, or call 503–725–5919.

- PSU’s Title IX Coordinator: 503-725-5919

  PSU’s Title IX Coordinator oversees PSU’s compliance with Federal Title IX requirements, as well as the PSU Policy on Prohibited Discrimination & Harassment (including Sexual Harassment). The Title IX Coordinator will work with the Office of the Dean of Student Life and CPSO as described above. PSU’s Title IX Coordinator is Julie Caron and the Deputy Title IX Coordinators are Christina Tubb and Domanic Thomas. They can be reached through email at safety@pdx.edu or by calling 503–725–5919.

- Anonymous Reporting:

  Link to Anonymous Report. This option is applicable if you do not want any follow up regarding your specific case. Completing the anonymous report form does NOT constitute a police report or a student conduct report. Anonymous reports are used to gather and record information regarding the incidence of sexual assault on and around our campus, and to inform the community about the campus climate. Students do not have to disclose your name or identifying information in this reporting option.

Updated 8-19-2015