SE XU A L & RELATIONSHIP VIOLENCE RESOURCES FOR EMPLOYEES & COMMUNITY MEMBERS

Resources:

Services for domestic and sexual violence

Services for domestic violence survivors and their children as well as LGBTQ community.

Sexual Minorities Youth Resource Center: 503-872-9664 (www.smyrc.org)
SMYRC provides mental health counseling to minority youth 23 and under and LGBTQ youth. Services include assessment, individual treatment, groups, couples, and family therapy.

Reporting Options:

Campus Public Safety Office (CPSO): 503-725-4404 (www.pdx.edu/cpso/) can be reached 24 hours a day and will work with Portland Police Bureau and University Officials, as appropriate, to follow up on the report. By reporting to CPSO, you are making a report for criminal law enforcement purposes and university disciplinary purposes.

Portland Police Bureau: Call 911 or 503-823-3333 to make a report to law enforcement

Student Code of Conduct Complaint: 503-725-4422
This report is applicable if your situation involves a PSU student. Go to the Student Code of Conduct webpage (www.pdx.edu/sexual-assault/student-code-of-conduct) for more information on filing a complaint, or call the Office of The Dean of Student Life at 503-725-4422.

Office of Equity and Compliance: 503-725-5919
This report is applicable if your incident involves faculty or staff. Go to the Office of Equity and Compliance website (www.pdx.edu/sexual-assault/office-of-equity-and-compliance) or call 503-725-5919.

PSU’s Title IX Coordinators: 503-725-5919
PSU’s Title IX Coordinator oversees PSU’s compliance with Federal Title IX requirements, as well as the PSU Policy on Prohibited Discrimination & Harassment (including Sexual Harassment). The Title IX Coordinator will work with the Office of the Dean of Student Life and CPSO as described above. PSU’s Title IX Coordinator is Julie Caron and the Deputy Title IX Coordinator is Christina James. They can be reached through email at jucaron@pdx.edu or by calling 503-725-5919.
Equitable Rights During University Administrative Process:

- Survivors shall be informed of their options to notify law enforcement.
- Accuser and Accused have timely access to information that will be used in a hearing.
- Accuser and accused must have the same opportunity to have others present (an advocate, advisor or attorney) during university disciplinary proceedings.
- Both parties shall be informed in writing of the outcome of any university disciplinary proceeding.
- Both parties have the right to appeal the final decision.

PSU Employee Resources

Employee Assistance Program 24-hour, 7 days a week/24 hours 503-639-3009 (www.cascadecenters.com)
The Employee Assistance Program assists with Career Development Services, Conflict at Work, Depression or Anxiety, Drug or Alcohol Abuse, Family Relationships, Financial/Legal/Consumer Concerns, Grieving a Loss, Marital Conflict, and Stress Management.

Leave for Victims of Domestic Violence, Harassment, Sexual Assault or Stalking (DVHSAS)
Provides for reasonable safety accommodation requested by an employee, or by the minor child or dependent who is a victim of domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking. The law provides protected leave to seek legal or law enforcement assistance, medical treatment, to obtain counseling, to relocate or take other steps to ensure health and safety. You may apply for this leave on the FMLA/OFLA Request form (https://web.imaging.pdx.edu/cas/UnityForm.aspx?key=UF-SessionIDKey).