A. OTHER CLUSTERS: Freedom, Privacy & Technology

B. SUITABILITY: Given that this course has been redesigned to meet the goals of general education and given its focus on women & gender in public policy and law, it is very appropriate for the Women's Studies Cluster.

C. CLUSTER INDIVIDUALITY: This course increases the representation of the School of Urban and Public Affairs in the Women's Studies cluster. It does not dilute the cluster—rather, it builds on the existing courses in the cluster to offer students an opportunity to explore an important arena of feminist scholarship.
