Heritage Language Initiative Meeting
March 8, 2011 2:00PM to 3:00 PM, NH 491 Conference Room
Present: Linda Godson, KyungAh Yoon, Aimee Carreón, Erin Waters
Note taker: Jordan Horner

1. Advertising and Technology

1.1 Flyers- The flyers that have been posted in designated areas around campus, including the new and improved bulletin board. The HLI logo is finished and will now be used for advertising purposes.

1.2 HLI page- Suha is working on a new Facebook page will be made making HLI capable of adding friends.

1.3 Outdoor booth- Once again HLI will be putting on an outdoor booth with information, treats, and activities for students this coming spring. Tentative dates include May 3rd, 5th, 10th, or 12th depending on booth availability. Jordan will make a reservation. Over the next few weeks preparations will be made and reservations confirmed.

3. International Night

3.1 Task List for booth- The group has updated the task list and designated specific aspects of our preparation to various individuals. Doina will be in charge, with Erin as her backup. Erin and Doina will be attending the International Night meetings from now on to represent the HLI. Helpers for set up and take down are still being recruited.

4. Discussion

4.1 Differentiated Instruction- This week instructors discussed differentiated instruction and how they could apply it within the classroom. Next week the discussion will continue as the group contributes examples for different activities for varying proficiency and content knowledge levels.

5. Upcoming Events

Regular HLI meeting. Tuesday, March 15. 1pm to 3pm. Chit Chat Café. Come when you can and for however long you can stay.

LING410/510- PSU will be offering a course in Heritage Languages Teaching Methods this Spring. The class may be contacting HLI for information and support in this field.

International Night- Friday April 22 5-8 pm- Smith Memorial Student Union, multiple floors.

NHLRC- May 1, 2011- Application deadline for the NHLRC Heritage Language Teacher Workshop at UCLA.