The Persian program at Portland State University presents

MOHSEN NAMJOO

LIVE IN CONCERT

Friday, April 20, 2012, 6 pm
Portland State University Lincoln Recital Hall, Room 75
1620 SW Park Avenue

Hailed as “the Bob Dylan of Iran” by the New York Times, Mohsen Namjoo is a visionary artist who speaks for and touches the souls of today’s youth. Seamlessly blending the Classical with the Modern, the Eastern with the Western, the ancient with the current, Mohsen Namjoo is a musical maverick. A Non-conformist who not only takes on the centuries old traditions of Persian music, but also his own approach to composition, style and sound.

Tickets available through the Portland State Box Office: pdx.edu/boxoffice | tickets@pdx.edu | 503-725-3307

Presented with funding from PARSA Community Foundation

Co-sponsored by the Middle East Studies Center and the Department of World Languages & Literatures