Spanish for Heritage Speakers courses are designed for students who have learned Spanish through contact with Spanish speaking communities or households and wish to professionalize their skills.

203H focuses on academic and formal registers with continued focus on spelling, differentiating between English and Spanish grammar, expanding your academic and professional vocabulary, and presentational discourse.

Prerequisite: Spanish 202/202H, or with the recommendation of the Spanish Adviser, Jenny Ceciliano (ceciliano@pdx.edu), or the recommendation of the instructor, Pedro Torres (pstorres@pdx.edu).

This course completes the BA and MA Foreign Language Requirements.

SPANISH 303H
SPRING 2015
TR 14:00 – 15:50
Credits: 4

303H is for students interested in writing and speaking Spanish for professional purposes. It completes the language requirement for the Chicano/Latino Studies Certificate.

This course fosters understanding and formal expression of the bilingual and biliterate experience, as well as advocacy of multilingualism and multiculturalism. Includes study of literature and film to promote an appreciation for the diversity of the Spanish language and Latino heritage.

We suggest you take 301H, 302H and 303H in order, but this is not required. To sign up, contact the Spanish Adviser, Jenny Ceciliano (ceciliano@pdx.edu), or the course instructor, Marisela Nyoka (nyoka@lclark.edu).
