2011 PSU Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Student Colloquium

Keynote Speaker Molly Landreth
Workshops and Presentations
Art and Spoken Word Show

Friday, May 13, 2011
8:30 am to 4:30 pm
Portland State University
Morning Gathering: Ondine
Breakout Session: Clay Building

Check out this blog for updated times, locations, and program information.
http://wgss2011.wordpress.com

Workshops and Presentations:
• Swedish Model of Criminalizing Client in Sex Trade- a feminist view
• Trans Men and Patriotarchy and Sexism
• Finding the Beat: How Young Girls Create Self Through Music
• Social Justice in Comic Books
• Street Smarts: Accounting for the Strengths of Homeless LGBTQQ Youth
• Social Justice Education in Public Elementary Schools: A Holistic Approach
• Zine-Making Workshop
• Panel discussion on Women of Color Musicians of Portland

FEATURING KEYNOTE SPEAKER

MOLLY LANDRETH
Check out her work at mollylandreth.com

Molly Landreth is a documentary and portrait photographer, based in Seattle, WA. Her current project is Embodiment, which seeks to explore queer life in the United States. Embodiment photographs and video have been exhibited in New York, Portland, Los Angeles, England, Australia, Germany, and Italy.