Soc339u Syllabus, Fall, 2017

NOTE: Be sure to read this syllabus over thoroughly and carefully. Some items are explained in more detail in the Week 1 Learning Module and in your Assignments instructions. The course syllabus is considered a contract between instructor and students. Your continued enrollment in the course indicates your agreement to abide by the terms of this contract.

Instructor Information

Instructor Name: Carol Holdt

Use D2L email tool - Enter holdtc@d2l.pdx.edu in the To Field and please include our course id (SOC339U) in the subject line.

Business email: Please use only if D2L is unavailable. holdtc@pdx.edu

Office hours: Virtual, using D2L. I will respond to questions in Q&A Discussions and D2L email on a daily basis.

Mentors/Assistant: Abby Kelley, Marisa Natta - available via D2L email and in the Discussions area.

*I have developed very detailed grading criteria and rubrics for scoring your coursework. Although most of the actual grading is done by your assigned mentor/teaching assistant (TA), the evaluation and scoring of your work is done under my close supervision. My assistants follow my instructions and I check their work regularly.

Course Information

Course Title, Number: Marriage and Intimacy, Sociology 339U

Course Delivery: This class is fully online and available to you at all times except when systems maintenance is performed (See course homepage for dates and times of outages). There are no face-to-face meetings.

Course Description: In this course, students will be introduced to sociological and social psychological perspectives on intimate relationships and all stages of family life. We will explore the wide diversity of ways in which people "do family." We'll examine the effects of historical and current social environments and the role of gender, race, and class in shaping our personal choices and experiences. We'll learn about important research being conducted and sociological theories that help to explain family experiences.

The general course objectives I hope students will achieve:

- To become familiar with recent research findings regarding families and intimate relationships
- To understand the various theoretical approaches used to study families and intimate relationships
- To become increasingly aware of the cultural influences that affect the decisions we make around family and intimate relationships
Course Delivery: This class is fully online and available to you at all times except when systems maintenance is performed (See course homepage for dates and times of outages). There are no face-to-face meetings.

This course is an elective for the Bachelor’s in Social Work and Child and Family Studies majors and an approved Cluster Course in the Families and Society Cluster. The course expands on the ecological framework introduced in the Families and Society Sophomore Inquiry class and related major areas of study.

Required Textbooks

Choose 1 of these three options:

- ebook: (least expensive) purchase from publisher’s website here: https://digital.wwnorton.com/thefamily
- Paperbound: (most expensive) ISBN: 978-0-393-93395-6

NOTE: Check the title, authors, ISBN and edition carefully! There are many similarly named books out there. You MUST have the correct edition of the text to succeed in this course.

General Requirements

Workload:
As a general rule, in any 4-credit course, students would be expected to spend 4 hours per week in the classroom and about 8-12 additional hours per week doing coursework outside the classroom. Since this class does not meet in the classroom, you should expect to spend between 12-16 hours per week completing required coursework. The time commitment may vary from week to week, depending on the amount of reading and other assigned work. Some weeks may require significantly fewer hours, some may require more. Throughout the course materials, I have included many reminders to you regarding the work that you must complete for this course but it is especially important in a fully online course for students to take responsibility for noting and meeting all course requirements and deadlines.

Active Participation in D2L:
Your participation in weekly online lessons is critical to your success in this course and therefore required. You must have access to the Internet on a regular basis so that you can log on to the class at least every three days to check for announcements and email. All coursework must be submitted in the D2L course. I will not accept any course work that is emailed or posted outside of D2L assignment tools. If you encounter problems with D2L, click on D2L Help at the top of the page. It's a very good idea to print a copy of the contact info found there in case you are unable to access D2L at some point during the term. Problems with your computer or Internet connection are NOT acceptable reason for deadline extensions. If you encounter such problems that cannot be resolved in time, you should use another computer to complete the work prior to the deadlines. It's a good idea to have an alternative computer or two identified BEFORE you run into problems.
Work Independently:

All coursework must be completed individually, without help from other students or anyone else.

Course Policies

Deadlines:
Please plan to complete all your coursework well ahead of deadlines. This will give you and me more opportunity to correct any problems in time for you to meet the deadline. The longer you wait to attempt to submit your work, the less likelihood there is of correcting a problem in time. Don’t count on help being available during evenings and weekends! For example, if you wait until Saturday evening to attempt the quiz and encounter a problem, the chances are very poor that you will be able to find assistance from me or the Help Desk and you may lose those valuable points. On the other hand, if you are able to contact me well before the deadline, chances are good that we can solve the problems so you can meet that deadline.

Throughout the course materials, I have included many reminders to you regarding the work that you must complete for this course but it is especially important in a fully online course for students to take responsibility for noting and meeting all course requirements and deadlines.

- Students should complete all coursework prior to the date indicated in this syllabus and the assignment instructions on D2L.
- Problems with your computer or Internet connection are NOT acceptable reason for deadline extensions. If you encounter computer problems, use another computer to complete the work prior to the deadlines.
- Deadlines will NOT be extended due to work schedules or travel plans. I require documentation for extensions due to illness.
- Review Quiz deadlines are firm. Two missed quizzes will not impact your course grade and therefore quizzes may not be made up.
- Online Activity Quiz deadlines are firm and may not be made up.
- Discussion posts are due during the week they are assigned, with no points given for submissions posted after 10 pm Saturday. Since this is a group activity, it is not possible for an individual to make up this work after the deadline. No exceptions.
  - Original Post: You must submit your original post by no later than 10 pm Wednesday night. (Only 1 point possible if submitted between Thursday and Saturday.)
  - Response Posts: Submit your response posts between Thursday morning and 10 pm Saturday night. (Only 1 point possible for response posts submitted before Thursday.)
- Missed exams: Makeup exams due to illness are only allowed up to 5 calendar days after the closing date of the original exam. If you are ill during the exam availability period, you should contact me as soon as possible so an extension can be negotiated. Documentation is required.
- If you miss an exam for any other reason, 10% will be deducted from your score if the exam is completed within 1 day of the original closing date, 20% will be deducted from your score if the exam is completed within 2-3 days of the original closing date, 30% will be deducted from your score if the exam is completed within 4-5 days of the original closing date. No makeup exams will be allowed after 5 days after the original closing date.

Conduct:
It is required that you act appropriately and demonstrate mutual respect for everyone involved in this course, including the instructor, mentorassistants, and your classmates. Disruptive behavior including, but not limited to, allowing online access by unauthorized guests, profanity, verbal abuse or threats directed to others, inappropriate discussion posts and emails, and any general disrespect of others, will negatively impact your grade in this course.
I reserve the right to delete any discussion posts that I or your classmates find to be non-academic and offensive.

Please review the University's Student Code of Conduct. These policies will be strictly adhered to and enforced should the situation arise.

Title IX: Sex/gender discrimination, sexual harassment and interpersonal violence:
As an instructor, one of my responsibilities is to help create a safe learning environment for my students and for the campus as a whole. We expect a culture of professionalism and mutual respect in our department and class. You may report any incident of discrimination or discriminatory harassment, including sexual harassment, to either the Office of Equity and Compliance or the Office of the Dean of Student Life.

Please be aware that as a faculty member, I have the responsibility to report any instances of sexual harassment, sexual violence and/or other forms of prohibited discrimination. If you would rather share information about sexual harassment or sexual violence to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility, including an Interpersonal Violence Advocate at the Women's Resource Center or the Queer Resource Center. You may contact a confidential advocate by calling 503-725-5672. This Sexual Misconduct Website provides a complete list of those confidential employees and off campus resources.

For more information about Title IX please complete the required student module Creating a Safe Campus in your D2L.

Plagiarism:
It is extremely important that you do not represent another person’s work as your own (plagiarism), whether intentional or not. It is your responsibility to acquaint yourself with the intricacies of academic writing and the appropriate use of another person’s work and/or ideas. See the Tip Sheet in the Content tab for help with avoiding plagiarism.

Please review the University’s Student Code of Conduct. These policies will be strictly adhered to and enforced should the situation arise. You will not receive credit for any coursework that is not your own, original work.

If you are not familiar with the rules of writing, you should consult a writing manual or seek support from the PSU Writing Center or a tutor. Here is a good online resource you may use - https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/679/01/.

I expect you to submit work that is appropriate for 200-level college course. While content should be our main focus, I cannot accept any form of plagiarism.

Access and Inclusion for Students with Disabilities
PSU values diversity and inclusion; we are committed to fostering mutual respect and full participation for all students. My goal is to create a learning environment that is equitable, useable, inclusive, and welcoming. If any aspects of instruction or course design result in barriers to your inclusion or learning, please notify me. The Disability Resource Center (DRC) provides reasonable accommodations for students who encounter barriers in the learning environment.

If you have, or think you may have, a disability that may affect your work in this class and feel you need accommodations, contact the Disability Resource Center to schedule an appointment and initiate a conversation about reasonable accommodations. The DRC is located in 116 Smith Memorial Student Union, 503-725-4150, drc@pdx.edu, https://www.pdx.edu/drc.

- If you already have accommodations, please contact me to make sure that I have received a faculty notification letter and discuss your accommodations. Students who need accommodations for tests and quizzes are expected to schedule their tests to overlap with the time the class is taking the test.

- For information about emergency preparedness, please go to the Fire and Life Safety webpage (https://www.pdx.edu/environmental-health-safety/fire-and-life-safety) for information.

Grading:
I have developed very detailed grading criteria and rubrics for scoring your discussion posts and exams. Although most of the actual grading is done by your assigned mentor/teaching assistant (TA), the evaluation and scoring of your work is done under my close supervision. My assistants follow my instructions and I check their work regularly.

Refer to PSU's Grading System for an explanation of the letter grades and other grading policies. Be sure to note that a C indicates satisfactory work. Meeting minimum requirements in a satisfactory manner is C work, NOT A work! In other words, students must do work that is significantly above and beyond the minimum requirements to earn a grade higher than C.

Students taking the course with a Pass/No Pass grading option must earn a C- (70%) or better in the course in order to pass.

D2L Course Structure: Weekly Modules and Instructions

This course is organized in weekly learning modules. The weeks begin at 6:00 am Sunday morning and end at 10 pm on Saturday night. This weekly structure may not be consistent with other online courses you have taken, or are currently taking, so please be sure to note this schedule so you can plan accordingly.

Required online activities are described in the Weekly Learning Modules, which are accessible in the Course Content area. Each weekly module includes:

WEEK #

* Learning Objectives - Use these to guide your reading and to create a study guide for quizzes and exams.

* Lecture - Additional information and course materials supplied by instructor. This material will be covered on quizzes and exams.

* Review Quiz - You must complete 8 of the 10 review quizzes covering the week’s reading assignment(s).

* Online Activity - Required online activities vary each week and may include a discussion or short quiz.

* Checklist - Use the checklists to check off each piece of work to make sure you have completed all of the assignments for the week.

Another feature of this course is a Course Content module of Optional Study Aids. You will find pre-reading quizzes, vocabulary flashcards, and vocabulary matching quizzes to help you prepare for the quizzes and exams.

Assignment Instructions
Review Quizzes - Each weekly module includes a review quiz covering the week's readings. You are required to complete 8 of the 10 review quizzes during the term. You must NOT complete more than the required 8 quizzes. The quizzes consist of 20 multiple choice and true/false questions. Quizzes are open book and cover material from the current week's online lectures, textbooks and any assigned online readings. You have one hour in which to complete each quiz attempt. Once you begin a quiz, do not exit until you have completed it. Doing so may use up one of your two attempts and may prevent you from using any additional attempts. If you encounter any problems, click on D2L Help at the top of the page.

You are allowed 2 attempts at each quiz and a different but similar set of questions will be presented with each attempt. Your highest score will be recorded. I suggest you complete the assigned readings, take the first attempt, then print your quiz and look up all the questions you missed. Some of the same questions are likely to be included in your second attempt as well. You may print your completed quizzes and use them as study guides for exams. (Printing is most easily done by copying and pasting the entire quiz into a Word document and then printing it from Word.) At the end of the term, your 8 quiz scores will be averaged and weighted at 25% of your overall course grade.

Quizzes are available beginning at 6 am Sunday mornings and must be completed prior to 10:00 pm on Saturday nights.

Online Activities - Required online activities vary each week and may include a discussion or short quiz. Some weeks you will be assigned a small group discussion, some weeks you will view a short video or read a short blog entry and either discuss it or complete an associated quiz. All online activities are required and your scores will account for 25% of your overall grade. Online Activity quizzes are not timed and you are allowed just one attempt at each associated quiz.

DISCUSSION ASSIGNMENTS: Several of our Online Activities include small group discussions. Whenever the activity is a discussion, these instructions and requirements apply. Discussions cannot be made up after the Saturday deadline. No points will be given for any posts submitted after 10 pm Saturday.

Original Posts - You must submit your original post between 6:00 am Sunday and 10:00 pm Wednesday. You may receive a maximum of 1 point for an original post submitted Thursday through Saturday.

Carefully read the discussion assignment instructions each week. Be sure you answer all parts of the assignment. In order to receive 3/3 points on your original post, it must be submitted within the required timeframe, answer all of the questions I asked, and include at least two clear connections to the week’s readings. Push yourselves, give things more thought, and remember that it's okay to question traditional thoughts if you see something differently. Cite the page numbers for all references to the textbook.

Response Posts - You must submit at least two response posts between 6:00 am Thursday and 10:00 pm Saturday. Response posts submitted prior to Thursday may earn up to one point (total). Your response posts must include your original ideas, not just agreement with the original author. Perhaps you can help the other students think about an issue in a new or different way or probe them as to why they believe a certain idea. Provide your own insight. Again, see what connections you can make to the readings. Pull in at least one idea from the week's assigned chapters. In order to get a 3/3 on your response posts, respond thoughtfully to 2 other people’s ORIGINAL posts.

Both Original and Response Posts
If you earn 6/6 points, this means that you are making outstanding original posts AND outstanding responses to your classmates’ original posts. Go to Course Content > Tip Sheets to view the scoring rubric that my TAs use to evaluate and assign point values to your posts. If you have any questions, post them in the Questions about Discussion Assignment in Discussions Q&A area.
VIDEO, INFOGRAPHIC, AND BLOG QUIZZES: Some activities will require you to view a short video or read a blog entry and then complete a short quiz. The link to the video or blog can be found within the quiz itself. Some quizzes will contain short answer questions as well as multiple choice questions. When answering the questions in these quizzes, you may need to refer to both the activity and the textbook for the correct responses.

Course Exams

Exams - There will be two online, open-book exams. The midterm will be available from Friday through Saturday of week 5; the final will be available from Sunday through Monday of Finals Week (week 11).

You will have two hours and just one attempt to complete each exam. The exams will cover all online lectures, textbook readings, and online readings and will consist of a combination of multiple choice and essay questions.

Essay Questions: As is standard with all essay exam questions, your responses will be evaluated based on the number of relevant ideas you take from the course readings and incorporate into your response. Generally, the more relevant ideas you correctly and clearly incorporate in your response, the more points you will receive. Refer to Plagiarism policy in the Course Policies module! No points will be given for essay responses that are not properly paraphrased to avoid plagiarism.

Each exam score is weighted at 25% of your overall course grade.

You must complete both exams in order to pass the course.

Questions?

If you have trouble using any of the D2L tools, click on D2L Help at the top of the page. It is a very good idea to print a copy of the contact info found there in case you are unable to access D2L at some point during the term. If you are unable to access D2L, please contact the PSU Help Desk (503-725-HELP or help@pdx.edu).

If, at any time during the term, you have questions about any of the course requirements or other information in the syllabus, assignment instructions, or learning modules, please post your question in the appropriate Ask the Instructor Q & A area in Discussions, where I will answer your question so that everyone can see the response.

If you have a question that is personal or confidential, that you just don’t want your classmates to see, please feel free to contact me using the D2L email tool at holdtc. Ignore any warning messages you see; it will get to me.

If you have a specific question about how a piece of your work was evaluated and graded, please feel free to contact your TA using the email tool. If you still need assistance after communicating with your TA, please contact me via D2L email. And please note that all of the grading criteria and scoring rubrics were developed by me, your instructor. Your TA has very little leeway in assigning scores to your work. Together, we will be sure to get all your questions answered. Any requests for deadline extensions or makeup work must be directed to me.

If you have a question about a quiz question, please wait until the quiz has closed before posting the question in the Q&A Discussions area. If you believe a question was worded improperly or the answer was incorrect, please contact me through D2L email and be sure to include the quiz number, your attempt number, question number, question text, specific reasons why you believe it is in error and the relevant page number(s) from the readings.
