The Inclusive Elementary Educator Program (IEEP) is designed for future teachers that have a desire to work with children with and without learning challenges. The program focuses on equity and social justice in classrooms and school settings.

Inclusive Elementary Educator Program is a full-time two-year graduate program leading to a master’s degree and licensure in both general and special education:

- Master of Science in Special Education or Master of Education
- The Oregon Preliminary Teaching License with authorizations in:
  - Special Education
  - Early Childhood (age 3-grade 8)
