For summer 2014, PSU Speech and Hearing Sciences is offering a class on assessment and intervention of bilingual populations. This is a great class for students and professionals who want to develop their expertise in serving bilingual populations. This class has a strong focus on the sounds and structures of the Spanish language and it is helpful to have a basic understanding of Spanish grammar. We will explore the most effective ways to assess and treat bilingual populations.