FEDERAL PERKINS LOAN
YOUR RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES AS A BORROWER

Read this brochure and learn how you might:
♦ CANCEL YOUR LOAN
♦ DEFER PAYMENTS
♦ MAINTAIN A GOOD CREDIT HISTORY

As a Federal Perkins Loan borrower you have certain rights and responsibilities which are highlighted in this brochure. For a more detailed explanation of those rights and responsibilities please refer to your promissory note.

When do I have to begin repaying my Federal Perkins Loan?

Repayment on your loan will begin nine months after you cease to be enrolled in at least a half-time course of study. During this "grace period" interest does not accrue and payments are not due. However, you may, at your option and without penalty, make payments during the grace period and thereby save money since interest is not charged. In addition to reducing your loan balance, such payments will benefit other needy students since it enables PSU to immediately lend out those funds.

How much will my payments be?

The minimum payment amount on Perkins Loans is $40 per month. However, there is a maximum 10 year repayment period; therefore your monthly payments may be higher depending upon the total amount of your loan.

If you obtained a Federal Perkins Loan at another school you may be entitled to have your loan payments pro-rated. This means each lender may be able to reduce your monthly payments based on the total amount of your Federal Perkins Loans. The maximum 10-year repayment period still applies and you continue to make payments to each lender. If you have an outstanding Federal Perkins Loan with another school contact the PSU Student Financial Services/Perkins office at 503-725-3440 option 4.

When do I get a repayment schedule?

During your last term at PSU, you need to schedule an exit interview by contacting the Student Financial Services/Perkins Office at 503-725-3440 option 4 or come to room 153 Neuberger Hall.

How will I be billed?

Heartland/ECSI sends out a bill each month. If you prefer, you may pay your loan through automatic withdrawal from your bank account or on line through https://borrower.ecsi.net/. For information call 1-888-549-3274, or 503-725-3440 option 4.

Who should I contact if I change my address?

Once you are no longer a student at PSU promptly notify the Student Financial Services/Perkins office of any address change by logging in to your account at https://borrower.ecsi.net/, by calling: 503-725-3440 option 4 or 1/800-547-8887 ext 4481; by writing: PSU PO Box 202 Portland OR 97207-0202, emailing: loans@pdx.edu.

Can I defer payments on my Federal Perkins Loan?

You may defer payments on your loan by filing properly certified forms requesting deferment. For all but student deferments you must request a deferment at the end of your grace period. Contact the Student Financial Services/Perkins Office for specific criteria and forms or access them on the web at: http://www.pdx.edu/financial-services/perkins-deferments. Depending on when you obtained your loan, deferments are granted for the following reasons:
Student - While enrolled: as at least a half-time student; or in a course of study in an approved graduate fellowship program; or in a course of study in an approved rehabilitation training program for disabled individuals; or in a graduate or post-graduate fellowship-supported study (such as pursuant to a Fulbright grant outside the United States).

Unemployment - While unable to find full-time employment, but may not be granted in excess of 3 years.

Hardship - While suffering an economic hardship, but may not be granted in excess of 3 years.

Armed Forces Reserves Active Military Duty – When ordered to active duty for a period greater than 30 days while you were enrolled at least half time or during your initial grace period.

After each of the deferments mentioned above you are entitled to a "post deferment grace period" of six months.

New Military Deferment as of July 1, 2006 - Beginning July 1, 2006, Federal Perkins regulations changed to allow Military Deferments for borrowers with loan disbursements after July 1, 2001. This deferment applies only to borrowers serving on active duty and qualifying National Guard duty during a war, or other military operation, or national emergency. The following text is taken from the Higher Education Reconciliation Act of 2005 which was enacted on February 8, 2006:

Military Deferment

Effective July, 2006, for all three loan programs (FFEL, Direct Loans, Perkins Loans), a new military deferment has been created, effective for loans for which the first disbursement is made on or after July 1, 2001. On or after July 1, 2006, a qualified borrower may receive a deferment for a period in which he or she meets the qualifications after July 1, 2001. The deferment shall not exceed a total of three years, and applies only to periods during which borrowers are serving on active duty during a war or other military operation, or national emergency or performing qualifying National Guard duty during a war or other military operation or national emergency. As a result, not all active duty military personnel are eligible for this new deferment. The HERA does not authorize the refunding of any loan repayment already made by a borrower at the time the deferment is granted.

Cancellation rates for all but the expanded Head Start cancellation are the same as those noted in the preceding box.

Note: If you also owe a Stafford loan you may want to check out the following website for information about possible Stafford loan forgiveness: www.studentaid.ed.gov
What if I am late making my payments or requesting deferment or cancellation?

As a requirement of the federal government PSU reports all student loan activity to national credit bureaus on a monthly basis. If payments or requests for deferment or cancellation are made late that information will be placed on your credit file. A late fee is assessed on past due accounts equal to 20% of the monthly payment.

If a loan is not brought current it may be accelerated. This means that the entire unpaid balance will become immediately due and payable. Furthermore, failure to remit payments on time could result in action by a collection agency. This action could impair your credit rating and result in the addition of collection costs on your account.

What if I am financially unable to make payments on my loan?

If you cannot make a scheduled payment, contact us immediately at 503/725-3125 or 1/800-547-8887 ext. 3125 and request forbearance. Every effort will be made to work with you through a difficult financial period.

Can I consolidate my student loans and make just one payment?

If you owe student loans to more than one lender you may be eligible for consolidation. Consolidating your loans may provide you with a more affordable monthly loan payment. Be aware that if you consolidate a Perkins loan cancellation benefits will be lost. The U.S. Department of Education provides information regarding consolidation at http://www.loanconsolidation.ed.gov/.

Can a defaulted Perkins Loan be rehabilitated?

You may rehabilitate a defaulted loan by making on-time monthly payments, as determined by Portland State University, each month for nine consecutive months. Upon successful completion of the rehabilitation your defaulted loan will again be subject to the terms and conditions, and qualify for the benefits and privileges, of your original promissory note. The default will be removed from your credit history. You can rehabilitate a defaulted loan only once.

How do I contact the Student Loan Ombudsman?

If you dispute the terms of your loan in writing and Portland State University is unable to resolve the dispute, you may seek the assistance of the Department of Education’s Student Loan Ombudsman. The ombudsman will review and attempt to informally resolve your dispute and may be contacted at 1/877-557-2575 or www.fsahelp.ed.gov/.

How do I find out information about all of my school loans?

The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) is the U.S. Department of Education’s central database for student aid. NSLDS receives data from schools, guaranty agencies, the Direct Loan program, and other Department of ED programs. NSLDS Student Access provides a centralized, integrated view of Title IV loans and grants so that recipients of Title IV Aid can access and inquire about their Title IV loans and/or grant data. To gain access go to: http://www.nslds.ed.gov
