Inaugural lecture in a new series
Engaging Asia: Lessons & Perspectives

Tuesday, April 23, 2013
6:00 – 7:15 PM
PSU Native American Student & Community Center
710 SW Jackson St, Portland

Portland, Oregon native, Pete Nickerson will describe his now 35-year journey through Asia. From the source of the inspiration to the realities created and encountered, he’ll illuminate the twists and turns of the path he followed through those years which have led to his Forrest Gumpian good fortune.

Pete Nickerson is a co-founder of Growth-Link Overseas Company, a private Hong Kong-based investment firm established in 1988. With annual revenue of nearly $1 billion, and over 85,000 employees, the company’s activity is investment in and operation of a series of businesses spanning manufacturing, distribution and retail sectors in China, Vietnam, Indonesia and India.

Mr. Nickerson is also a co-founder of the Chinus and Indus Funds, which are dedicated to providing American investors with access to the historic economic expansion that is occurring in China and India. He serves on the boards of Feng Tay Enterprises, a publicly listed company on the Taiwan Stock Exchange (stock number 9910.tw); Cascade Corporation listed on the NYSE (stock symbol CASC); e-BI, a private Oregon company engaged in China-related industrial trade; The Johns Hopkins Nanjing Center for Chinese and American Studies; and the Portland State University Foundation.
